PROFILE OF INNOVATION

High-quality on trend finishes for tile and stone

Creating spaces with tile and stone whether they are living, relaxing or working spaces call for design considerations. If the “vision” calls for vintage, traditional or contemporary, the attractive textured finishes of Schlüter®-TRENDLINE have been applied to the Schlüter®-QUADEC, -RONDEC, -JOLLY and -DILEX profile families. Incorporating profiles into the overall design with textures that blend or act as a contrasting accent with the tile and stone, providing protection and decoration, and those all important finishing touches.

GREIGE - From timeless elegance to Mediterranean flair

The trend toward greige tiles, with colour shades ranging from light beige to dark grey, offers tasteful and timeless decorative. The Schlüter®-TRENDLINE profile series offers limitless design possibilities to match.

For those who prefer tone on tone designs, the greige colour range is sure to offer the right profile for every tile and stone Schlüter®-TRENDLINE profiles also offer a broad selection of powder-coated finishes that can provide a complementary contrast to the tile or stone covering.

No matter what you choose, Schlüter®-TRENDLINE offers a number of combination options to create elegant, comfortable living spaces in the greige colour tones. While the warmer colours make for a natural atmosphere to create Mediterranean flair, the cooler greige colours can stylishly highlight linear elements in interior design.

The greige colour range of Schlüter®-Systems offers limitless choices for any design style you favour.

CONCRETE LOOK - From classic chic to purist minimalism

Floor and wall coverings with a concrete look are enjoying increasing popularity. They create a variety of design options in different shades of grey that are found in numerous decorative styles.

The Schlüter®-TRENDLINE profiles are a perfect finishing option for the design of living spaces inspired by the “concrete look” interior design trend. The profiles either are an elegant, understated blending with the wall and floor designs or set interesting contrasts in various grey shades.

The Schlüter®-TRENDLINE profiles offer limitless design options for decorations in concrete look.

WOOD LOOK - From natural elegance to rustic romance

The “wood look” design trend, which transfers the natural features of wood authentically to ceramic wall and floor coverings, has also been an inspiration for the Schlüter®-TRENDLINE profiles. This trend is inspired by nature, but also by the practical convenience and energy-efficiency of ceramic wall and floor coverings.

Developers and renovators increasingly opt for wood-look tiles to set special visual highlights. Tiles are also easy to care for, and make the perfect covering for floor heating systems. They are a major advantage when it comes to saving energy.

Wood colours range from light beige to dark brown and reddish brown tones. Whether your design features a Nordic look, cottage style, or exquisite hardwood - the colour range of Schlüter®-TRENDLINE is sure to include a matching choice for your tile.

METAL LOOK - From vintage to industrial design

The innovative metal look is becoming an increasingly popular choice for wall and floor coverings in modern homes. With their sheen and iridescent light effects, metal accents give your home a stylish and a cosmopolitan flair. The matching Schlüter®-TRENDLINE profiles add individual detail to wall corners and transitions.

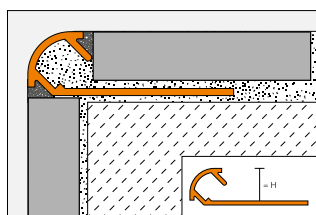

Inspired by industrial materials such as Corten (weathered) steel, the Schlüter®-TRENDLINE profiles create a cosmopolitan appeal. Whether vintage or industrial look, the profiles accentuate living spaces with versatile possibilities. The tone on tone, dark metal or rustic brown choices in the Schlüter®-TRENDLINE profile series are sure to include the perfect profile to match your design preferences.

Thanks to their proven powder coating process, the profiles feature a naturally textured surface which offers a to-the-touch textured finish which complements metal look tiles.

BLACK AND WHITE - An interpretation of classic colours

You may find it contradictory to show black and white profiles in a TRENDLINE brochure. After all, they are the epitome of classic (non)colours.

However, the velvety feel of the matte finishes in the colours matte brilliant white and matte graphite black offers a completely different experience that is a perfect fit for tile classics as well as stylish novelties with structured surfaces.
