

Astralux Insect Screens

Screens

- » designed to suit all applications
- » manufactured from high grade powder coated extruded aluminium
- » options for sliding
- » all options supplied with brush piles or bristle strips for a sealed finish

Mesh

- » fibreglass supplied as standard
- » aluminium or stainless steel is available as an option for greater strength

Doors

- » lightweight - aluminium framed with fibre-glass mesh
- » standard - a heavier version of the lightweight door
- » heavy duty - a strong aluminium door with a decorative security grille incorporated within the frame

1993 EEC FOOD HYGIENE DIRECTIVE

“ Requires windows and doors in commercial food preparation areas which open to the outside environment are fitted with a means of preventing the entry of insects and other infestations. Systems should be permanently insect proof with seals that remain intact after thousands of operations. ”

Options

Boxed Systems

- ▶ can be used both internally and externally
- ▶ for use with hinged and pivoting windows

Sliding Frames

- ▶ double or single sliding systems available

Hinged System

- ▶ allows windows to be cleaned easily

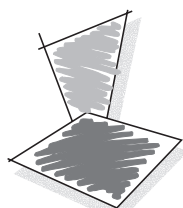

Winder System

- ▶ allows the opening of a window without the need to remove the fly screen
- ▶ lockable in open and closed positions

For further information and technical advice please contact:

DEARNLEYS

Dearnleys Limited

120-128 Wrenthorpe Road, Wrenthorpe, Wakefield, West Yorkshire WF2 0JN

Tel: 01924 371791 Fax: 01924 386001 info@dearnleys.com www.dearnleys.com