Introducing...

Naylor Specialist Plastics is part of a family owned fourth generation business.

The Company's origins lie in clay pipes – a product which it has manufactured for over 100 years. From this traditional base, Naylor's activities have expanded and diversified resulting in a group of substance, with interests across a broad spectrum of the building and construction industries.

Naylor Specialist Plastics Tipton are experienced manufacturers of all types of extruded tubes and pipes and have expertise in making all types of extruded thermoplastic tubes and profiles. We provide solutions for customers needing development samples, short production runs, special sizes or fabricated assemblies.

Naylor Specialist Plastics Wombwell manufactures a wide range of plastic extrusions for a diverse range of industries. In addition to our extrusion plant we also manufacture a comprehensive range of ventilation ducting products.
