

Permanent access systems

Well designed permanent access equipment is essential for the safe and efficient cleaning of modern buildings as well as playing an important role in their cost effective maintenance and repair.

Considerable experience in this specialist field enables us to offer solutions to most access problems.

Illustrated here is a selection from the comprehensive Rostek range of high quality custom-designed access systems already installed and complying with the latest national and international safety standards.

