BENEFITS OF CONCEALED RISER DOORS

- Overcome an unwanted issue – We can't eliminate riser access doors so this provides minimum design and visual impact compromises
- Designed and manufactured for bespoke solutions – Specifiers are not restricted to 'off the shelf' sizes and finishes
- Virtually invisible – With hidden frames, locks, hinges, ironmongery
- Can be hidden behind multiple finishes – Options include paint, tile, stone, marble, cladding and more
- High level of design capability built in – Including acoustics, fire ratings and insulation
- Easy to install by the fit out sub-contractors – No requirement for expensive additional carpentry trades
- Third party CERTIFIRE fire rated – For the VEGA 1500, INTEGRA 4000 and VISION 8000 Series
- High level of support data and certification – Including installation guides, maintenance manuals, CAD drawings, BIM and more
- Multiple locking and security access options - Including key strategies to ensure effective access restrictions
- Low maintenance and durable – Due to high quality steel constructions
- Proven technology – Used in multiple high value, high profile projects over a sustained period
- Reputation and backing – Profab Access is part of the Access 360 division of Tyman
